You have seen me, You're the only one that truly sees

COVENANT

Artist : ECCLESIA

Writer : Andrew Padilla

Covenant

Gm

He keeps on reminding me

of the melody

he sings over me

all of our history

is a symphony

its so humbling

tell me what kind of God

holds up the law

and still shows His love in it

This is the ultimate coveted covenant

this is a covenant

this is a covenant

who'd pay the price

to purchase my life

and take on the punishment

who'd make a slave

worthy to save

by keeping His promises

tell me what kind of God

and still shows his love in it

this is the ultimate coveted covenant

this is a covenant

this is a covenant

(every afternoon when the days work was over and the sun was setting, the father would go out on the front porch and watch down the road- praying for his son- wanting his son to return-)

I am the Lord your God

I am the Lord your God

Calling you to come back

Calling you to come back home

Calling you to come back come back child

I am the I am the Lord

I am the Lord your God

Calling you to come back

Calling you to come back home

Calling you to come home

Cause I'm jealous for the whole thing

I can't bear to see you out on the street

they can't love you like a holy God

they just want to see you far away from me (oh)

They don't want the best for you they just want to hold you down till they execute you sin leads to the death of you demons wanna beat you down till you're black and blue but I'm tryna set you free in me give your spirit liberty

grounded on identity

it's your destiny

can't you see it's me

I am the Lord your God

I am the Lord your God

Calling you to come back

Calling you to come back home

Calling you to come back come back child

I am the I am the Lord

I am the Lord your God

Calling you to come back

Calling you to come back home

yeah you've been distant but I ain't never left you living like you ain't got a father who'll protect you

I'll take you back and erase all the refuse

I'll be the ransom, I'll be the refuge

I'll take your mess and I'll take your mess ups put it all behind like it never happened

I keep my kids like i keep my commitments keeping my kids cause the kingdom is in them

Cause I'm jealous for the whole thing

they just want to see you far away from me (oh)

This is a covenant

(the Lord's Prayer)

我們在天上的父，
願人都尊你的名為聖
願你的國降臨，
願你的旨意行在地上，
如同行在天上。

今日賜給我們。
免我們的債，
如同我們免了人的債，
不叫我們遇見試探，
救我們脫離凶惡。
因為國度、權柄、榮耀，
全是你的，
直到永遠。
